Every Legal Matter is Important

We're Here to Help You Handle Yours the Right Way

Your Legal Plan Is Built for You

Every legal issue is different. Some involve your personal rights, your family, or your property. Many are personal legal matters paid in full by your legal plan when you use a network attorney, and that attorney can help you.

But Not Every Legal Question Is a Covered Legal Matter

While your Legal Plan covers most personal legal issues, it doesn't apply to matters involving laws, regulations, company policies, or disputes where legal costs exceed what's at stake, regardless of who pays the legal fees. We'll still help you understand your options, but some situations don't require or allow attorney involvement.

Here are some examples of issues your plan cannot provide a lawyer for help and why.

- Public or Policy Issues – Petitioning a government agency, running for office, or trying to change a law or regulation, including consumer laws with no private right of action.
 - Business or Investment Matters – Issues related to a business, partnership, rental, or investment property, are often excluded.
 - Employment Disputes – Any matter involving your employer, benefit plans, or workplace claims such as workers' compensation or harassment.
 - Tax, Securities, or Patent Issues – Filing tax returns or handling complex financial, investment, or intellectual-property matters.
 - Costs & Court Fees – Your plan covers attorney time, but not out-of-pocket expenses such as court fees, fines, deposition fees. Investigator fees, transcript fees, expert fees, or bonds.
- Frivolous or Non-Covered Cases – Issues with no damages or very small disputes (like minor billing errors) or matters an attorney believes lack a legal basis. Courts focus on legitimate legal claims, not cases filed out of frustration or to get even. These also include matters where the value of the loss is less than the likely attorney's fees, no matter who is paying.

Not sure if your situation qualifies? Our team can help you find out before you take the next step.

- What's the difference between a covered legal matter and a grievance?
- Why aren't business or policy issues included in my plan?
- Can I get help for an issue that's not covered?
- What if my case is worth less than the attorney's fees?

* Managed Case Rules

In cases requiring more attorney time than covered by the standard Participating Attorney maximum fee, Managed Case Rules may be used to approve additional coverage beyond the standard Participating Attorney maximum fees or to ensure that Non-Participating Attorney fees are reasonable and customary. Managed Case Rules provide protection for Members by limiting or preventing additional charges that Members would otherwise be responsible for. Managed Case Rules may be enacted prior to or after the initial consultation. Managed Case Rules require the following:

1. The Member should contact the Member Service Center prior to proceeding with an attorney. If the Member understands from the attorney that there may be additional charges beyond the covered charges under the Policy and the Member does not contact the Member Service Center prior to proceeding with the attorney, then the Member may be responsible for those additional charges beyond the covered charges under the Policy, even on a Paid In Full benefit.

2. If it is determined that the complexity of the case may require additional hours beyond the standard Participating Attorney maximum, or that the Non-Participating Attorney charges are higher than reasonable and customary fees, the attorney must provide a written estimate of fees reflecting their best judgment as to the likely cost of legal services based on the expected conduct of the case.
3. We will set a maximum attorney fee that takes into consideration the reasonable level of reimbursement of the proceeding and the proposed litigation strategy. Fees as a result of services in excess of the maximum attorney fee are the responsibility of the Member.

OBTAINING BENEFITS

Claim for Benefits

1. Members should call the Member Service Center to confirm the potentially applicable benefit(s) prior to consulting with any attorney. The Member/Covered Family Member must provide all information requested with respect to the circumstances of an insured event or service provided. The Member Service Center will assign a Participating Attorney to provide services relative to the matter. If a Member/Covered Family Member has a Non-Participating Attorney they would prefer to work with, they must notify the representative of their intention to use a Non-Participating Attorney for a Covered Service. The Member Service Center will provide a claim form within fifteen (15) days of notice. The Legal Plan Administrator may elect to offer to negotiate with the attorney on their behalf, but cannot guarantee the Non-Participating Attorney will accept the Plan Discounted Rate. Failure to submit a claim to the Member Service Center within sixty (60) days or as soon as reasonably possible following consultation with an attorney may result in a denial of benefits.
2. To confirm coverage for matters to which Managed Case Rules apply reference Managed Case Rules in the Schedule of Benefits.
3. The Member must remain enrolled and continue to pay premium hereunder for services to be requested.
4. Upon completion of a Covered Service, the Member/Covered Family Member may be required by the Participating Attorney to sign a confirmation of completion. Failure to sign the confirmation may result in denial of the claim and the Member/Covered Family Member will be responsible for all legal fees.
5. If the Member/Covered Family Member pays for pre-authorized services provided by a Non-Participating Attorney, the Member must submit a reimbursement form (provided by Member Service Center) accompanied by an original itemized bill, proof of payment and supporting documentation sufficient to demonstrate the work completed in the matter within sixty (60) days after incurring the legal fees. If the Member/Covered Family Member receives reimbursement of attorney's fees, then the Member/Covered Family Member agrees to reimburse Us for payments issued.
